Your school in the heart of Lausanne

"The teachers were extraordinary, very educational, intelligent and empathetic."

Arturo

Today, French is the only official language in 14 countries, is co-official in 17 others and dominant in 50 others.

Lemania has over 80 years' experience in language teaching.

The Queen of Norway took a French course at Lemania.

During 2022-2023, students were from 15 to 30 years old.

Language Courses Manager

A unique language school

Ecole Lemanía's language courses are a club where students from all backgrounds come together with a single goal in mind: to make rapid progress in French or English and achieve their goals.

Working in small groups enhances diversity and mitigates potential differences in level. In a group of less than ten people, integration is easier, as the teacher can give all students all the support they need. Taking a language course at Lemanía School opens many opportunities for learners.

"I really appreciated the support of the teachers who helped me become proficient in French in a short time."

Ashima

in both general and vocational education.

Ecole Lemanía's resources make it an ideal platform for preparing the steps you want to take after your French course. I'll be happy to guide you.

French, an academic and professional asset

In the Lausanne area, learning French represents a considerable advantage for university studies or professional development.

Whether you need a French diploma to complement your school-leaving certificate for university entrance, or you need to quickly acquire a better level of French to meet the needs of your job, we'll get you to where you want to be efficiently, with the least amount of time possible spent achieving your goal.

Every year, our students manage to get into the university of their choice or land a job thanks to their French course.

Is learning English in Lausanne a good idea?

Lemanía School is a true international community where English enables you to communicate every day both inside and outside the classroom. The same is true of Lausanne, a vibrant cosmopolitan city with multinational companies and numerous international sports federations.

Accelerated learning of English can also lead to joining our International Baccalaureate class.
